

THE NEWS.

A man in Beloit has specimens of one hundred different birds found in the State of Wisconsin.

Twenty years ago there were six postoffices in the State of Minnesota, now there are six hundred.

Dr. John Sloan, of New Albany, Ind., has been tendered the professorship of surgery in the Louisville Medical College.

The name of the new Democratic organ, to be printed at Washington by New York, with a capital of $100,000, is to be the Patriot.

Senator Knowlton has arrived at his home in Knoxville. He has so far recovered his health that he is able to walk a considerable distance.

The National Intelligencer will be published hereafter as a sixteen page weekly, in New York, and will continue managing editor.

The Chinese Government has made an appropriation for the funeral expenses of Anson Burlingame, and a liberal gift to Mrs. Burlingame.

The waters of the Mississippi and St. Croix are getting so low that heavily loaded boats experience considerable difficulty in avoiding sandbars.

The latest style in gold bracelets is in the shape of a fluted metal cuff, and is made of burnished gold with a diamond button and ruby button in the center.

Teagerson presented the manuscript of his "In Memoriam" to the late Sir John Simon, M. P., an intimate and personal friend and neighbor of the poet.

The young men of St. Joseph are attempting to organize a real estate association, to consist of one hundred members, who are to pay $10 per month for five years.

Wm. H. Seward, the war prophet, has been heard from. He thinks the war in Europe will be over in sixty days. We think it will be all over Europe in less than that.

The colored people of Kansas have a grand convention at Leavenworth on the 1st of August. Preparations are making for one of the largest gatherings ever held in the State.

Duluth expects to get the grain trade of the lakes, and through the Pacific trade, the timber trade, the lake trade, the copper trade of the Pacific mines, and the fish trade of Lake Superior.

The accounts of the sacred drama acted in Bavaria are exciting an extraordinary interest in England, and numbers of persons intend going to witness the representation which are to take place in August.

A hint for Mr. Sobenack. Swift at one time proposed to put a tax on female beauty, and to leave the duty to rate of men's charms. He said the tax would cheerfully be paid, and would be very productive.

Thurford Weed has forty volumes of letters, chronologically arranged, from the most eminent men in the country, to refresh his memory in writing his autobiography. As yet, he has only got down to the letter of a general European war.

Revenue stamps on receipts for money are no longer required under the new tax law; a piece of information which, though apparently of no place here, is of personal interest to every one who has money to receive.

The "coming woman" the yacht race, the Chinese, the Indians, the Custom House, the new tariff, the riot, infidelity, and a score of other interesting questions, have all faded into insignificance before the coming of a general European war.

Rev. Mr. Boehm, of Staten Island, long ago the traveling companion of Bishop Asbury, and now ninety-five years of age, is at Saratoga. He is the oldest minister in America, and walks about town, reads ordinary print, and enjoys good health.

Twenty-five years ago Saratoga was a small village, with a dozen hotels. Now it is a town of 10,000 inhabitants, with thirty hotels, and as many boarding-houses. The private carriage was quite a novelty; now Broadway is in a blaze with splendid turnouts and showy liveries.

Jo Howard says: "After a course of spoon, Blanche B. is to marry S. A. Ames, of Mississippi. Now that she has won her Ames, and captured her heart, let us have no more allusions to the family plate." (That cannot be, Joe. The allusion, like the plate, is an heirloom.)

Princess Metternich hoped it would be a boy, but it was a daughter, and the third of that sex. The titles and estates of the family are now on her side, and there are more allusions to the family plate.

The New York Globe says: "If anything would induce us to consent to another American war, foreign or domestic, it would be the hope that the city huckster, stimulated by the example of their brethren in Paris, would volunteer and enter the ranks. As an ill wind that blows nobody good, we never expect, however, to enjoy the blessing which has fallen upon Paris."

For some time past the Fiji Islands, which are situated in the Pacific, have been growing in importance; large numbers of people have been coming to them from Australia, and the population has become considerable. The principal European settlers have now set forth a motion in the favor of establishing an independent state.

Mrs. Lillie Devereux Blake, formerly of North Carolina, and a niece of the late General Sherman, is one of the latest speakers which the woman suffrage movement has called forth. She has always been a leader in the fashionable society of the South, and is described as a handsome woman and a fine orator, her addresses overflowing with eloquent appeals and humorous illustrations.

It is a significant fact that the New York Tribune is rapidly gaining circulation in the South and West, while in New England it is losing ground. That steadfast friend of the laboring, the poor, and the oppressed, the "Gospel according to Horace," as it is facetiously called, is eagerly sought and read by thousands of freedmen, many of whom take their first reading lessons on a Tribune editorial. That account for the Tribune's worthwhileness and unrelenting popularity.

Rev. Dr. Isaac Ferris, Chancellor of the University of the South, has resigned his position, which he has held since 1852. He found the institution struggling with embarrassment and leaving him in a financial strait. Among those spoken of as his successors are Dr. Howard Crosby, and John Taylor Johnson, President of the Union College, and Dr. J. W. Draper, whose wide reputation is strongly insisted on by his many friends. Prof. E. A. Johnson is also mentioned.

SEDUCTION AND RETRIBUTION.

A Virginian Seduces his Sister-in-Law and is Shot Dead by the Deed-ful of his Victim.

From the Richmond Enquirer, July 21. Captain William H. Hayward, a well-known citizen of Richmond, Va., up to late residing at Chester, had two daughters; one of them, Miss Laura Hayward, was recently married to Benjamin H. Lindsey, the hotel-keeper of Chester.

On Tuesday morning Lindsey came to Richmond for the purpose of seeing the Governor in the interest of a colored man named Robertson, who had been recently convicted of robbery in Chesterfield county and sentenced to the penitentiary. Upon the cars he joined company with Captain W. I. Clifton, who was likewise going to Chester. Arriving at Chester, the two got out of the cars together and went into Hayward's bar, which adjoined the hotel. Hayward was behind the counter, and the two sat at the bar. Captain Clifton noticed at the time there was a peculiarly troubled look upon his face, but only a few words were passed.

Clifton then left Hayward and Lindsey together. Captain Hayward said to Lindsey: "There is a young fellow here who desires to see you. Lindsey inquired who it was, and Lindsey answered: 'Never mind, you deliver him to me.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

ALABAMA NEWS.

The Commercial says "Dr. Mary Walker is to settle in Mobile."

Mr. Albert Gafford, an old and honored citizen of Butler county, died last week.

Eight heaves were killed on the Town branch, near Columbiana, one day last week.

General W. T. H. Brooks died in Huntsville on the 19th inst., aged about forty years.

Dr. B. H. Jones, formerly of Huntsville, has been chosen President of the Texas Medical Association.

The Mobile Register thinks that there is any sum, pay there, or that there has been in some time.

The Huntsville Democrat gives cheering accounts of the growing cotton and corn crops in the western part of the State.

Mr. Joseph Daniel, for many years a citizen of Perry county, died near State Line, Miss., on the 24th ult., aged seventy-two years.

James Mahan, Senator from Shelby and Bibb, was married in Montgomery, at the Catholic Church, on the 19th inst.

L. H. Fleming, for many years General Superintendent of the Mobile and Ohio railroad, has been removed, and General Curtis, of the Camden and Amboy road, is appointed in his place.

Vernon H. Vaughan, made notorious by his implication in the assassination of Ryland Randolph, has been appointed Secretary of the Alabama place made vacant by the death of Colonel C. C. Crowe.

On the 24th, Rome and Dalton railroad the other day, two passengers had their arms broken by coming in contact with a box car on a siding, left too near the main track. The freight conductor was discharged for his negligence.

Mercer University, at its recent commencement, conferred the title of Doctor of Divinity on Rev. Freeman S. Adams Lee, who has been engaged by the trustees as Professor of Literature. He is a native of Alabama.

Hayward then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Hayward then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Hayward then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Hayward then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Hayward then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Hayward then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Hayward then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Hayward then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Hayward then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Hayward then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Hayward then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Hayward then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Hayward then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

Hayward then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.' Lindsey then went to the door, and up to the second floor, and Captain H. opened his door, and Lindsey said: 'My dear sister-in-law, I have a letter from your father.'

THE WAR.

No Battle Yet--Preparations Still Being Made for the Contest.

The French Fleet Fully Organized--Names of Vessels and Commanders.

The Great Naval Port of Cherbourg Being Strengthened--Additional Troops Arriving.

The Valley of the Moselle to be the Scene of Conflict--Russia Concentrating Behind the Rhine.

The French Official Explains the Treaty over which the English had such a Spasm--Nothing in It.

The Scandinavians of Chicago Sympathize with France, and Receive the Thanks of Napoleon Therefor.

Rumors, Movements and Speculations. Etc., Etc.

ENGLAND. LONDON, July 27. (Midnight.)--Address from a special correspondent at Cherbourg states that the squadron is completely formed, and is under the command of Admiral Boscawen.

The first division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The second division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The third division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The fourth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The fifth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The sixth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The seventh division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The eighth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The ninth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The tenth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The eleventh division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The twelfth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The thirteenth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The fourteenth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The fifteenth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The sixteenth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The seventeenth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The eighteenth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The nineteenth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The twentieth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The twenty-first division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The twenty-second division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The twenty-third division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The twenty-fourth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The twenty-fifth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The twenty-sixth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The twenty-seventh division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The twenty-eighth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The twenty-ninth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The thirtieth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The thirty-first division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The thirty-second division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The thirty-third division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The thirty-fourth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The thirty-fifth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The thirty-sixth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The thirty-seventh division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The thirty-eighth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

THE WAR.

No Battle Yet--Preparations Still Being Made for the Contest.

The French Fleet Fully Organized--Names of Vessels and Commanders.

The Great Naval Port of Cherbourg Being Strengthened--Additional Troops Arriving.

The Valley of the Moselle to be the Scene of Conflict--Russia Concentrating Behind the Rhine.

The French Official Explains the Treaty over which the English had such a Spasm--Nothing in It.

The Scandinavians of Chicago Sympathize with France, and Receive the Thanks of Napoleon Therefor.

Rumors, Movements and Speculations. Etc., Etc.

ENGLAND. LONDON, July 27. (Midnight.)--Address from a special correspondent at Cherbourg states that the squadron is completely formed, and is under the command of Admiral Boscawen.

The first division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The second division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The third division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The fourth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The fifth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The sixth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The seventh division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The eighth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The ninth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The tenth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The eleventh division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The twelfth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The thirteenth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The fourteenth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The fifteenth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The sixteenth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The seventeenth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The eighteenth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The nineteenth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The twentieth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The twenty-first division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The twenty-second division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The twenty-third division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The twenty-fourth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The twenty-fifth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The twenty-sixth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The twenty-seventh division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The twenty-eighth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The twenty-ninth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The thirtieth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The thirty-first division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The thirty-second division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The thirty-third division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The thirty-fourth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The thirty-fifth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The thirty-sixth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

The thirty-seventh division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent. The thirty-eighth division is under the command of Rear Admiral Boscawen, whose flagship is the iron-clad St. Vincent.

THE WAR.

No Battle Yet--Preparations Still Being Made for the Contest.

The French Fleet Fully Organized--Names of Vessels and Commanders.

The Great Naval Port of Cherbourg Being Strengthened--Additional Troops Arriving.

The Valley of the Moselle to be the Scene of Conflict--Russia Concentrating Behind the Rhine.

The French Official Explains the Treaty over which the English had such a Spasm--Nothing in It.

The Scandinavians of Chicago Sympathize with France, and Receive the Thanks of Napoleon Therefor.